

THE ANTIOCH NEWS.

VOL. XXVII.

ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1913

NO 9

PREVENTATIVE FOR HOG CHOLERA

Farm Doctor Blair Gives His Views and Preventative for This Disease

IS A CONTAGIOUS DISEASE

Is Spread by Dogs, Birds, Dust and Wagon—Germ Can be Carried on Clothing or Footwear

The old saying that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" fits the case of hog cholera exactly. It is thoroughly disheartening to lose part of all the herd in the few hours it takes this dread disease to accomplish its purpose, and any way that we may assist in preventing the outbreak will be very much in order.

Hog cholera is a contagious disease and is spread by means of dogs, birds, blowing dust, wagons; in fact the disease can be carried by almost anything that the germs can stick to. After visiting an infected herd, the shoes worn should be thoroughly sterilized before leaving the farm.

Community interest will help wonderfully in preventing the spread of the disease. We mean by this all the people in each neighborhood combining to use preventative methods against bringing infection from outside sources. Know that the disease is spread by germs, is thoroughly contagious, and act accordingly.

A complete quarantine is not, however, always practical on the average farm, and the best that can be hoped for is a least check on the opportunity for infection by placing the herd on a part of the farm that will be least accessible to the animals from other farms. Hog lots should never be located near public roads, if this can be avoided.

It is well occasionally to scatter slack lime around the lot, wash and disinfect the feeding troughs. One of the best disinfectant for the purpose is one part solution of cresol to thirty parts of water. The solution of cresol can be made up at any drug store.

After an outbreak of hog cholera, all yards and pens should be thoroughly cleaned, all the dead hogs buried with quick lime or burned. The litter should be collected and burned, and lime scattered freely over the ground. Use disinfectants liberally in every place frequently used by the diseased animals.

The feeding and care of hogs have much to do with prevention of cholera. Clean dry pens, regular and proper feeding, comfortable sleeping quarters, plenty of sunshine, the pens cleaned regularly, will count much towards prevention.

Whenever possible, it is an excellent plan to dip the hogs every few weeks when the weather is fit. Anything that will assist in keeping the herd in good health will help ward off the disease.

One of the best conditions known, and one recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture is as follows: Wood charcoal 1 pound, sulphur 1 pound, sodium chloride 1 pound, sodium bicarbonate 2 pounds, sodium phosphate 2 pounds, sodium sulphate 1 pound, antimony sulphide (black antimony) 1 pound.

Mix this with the feed, the proportions of one tablespoonful to each 200 pounds weight of hogs and feed but once a day. This treatment is not a cure but acts as a preventative by keeping the herd in good condition, and even if this be used, strict attention must be given to quarantine and sanitary measures if the disease is too widespread in the neighborhood.

Millburn Fire Insurance Assessment
The Directors of the Millburn Mutual Insurance company have levied an assessment to pay losses of 1913 amounting to $18,059.57 of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) on each one thousand dollars insured. Said assessment will be due, called for in thirty days.

John Thain, Sec'y.
Millburn, Illinois, Nov. 1913.
Not to be used.
Art Dealer—This is a beautiful scene from Hamlet. Mrs. Newcomb—I don't care, Hamlet. Show me a good-sized one.

STATE TAKES UP FIGHT

To Improve Grade Crossings at Gurnee and Other Dangerous Places

In the very near future some of the most dangerous grade crossings on railroads running through Lake county may be eliminated.

The Illinois Railroad and Warehouse commission has begun on a plan of interrogating the railroads of the state as to the dangers of their grade crossings, incidentally showing the reason for the automobile trip Governor Dunne took through the state during the summer. During this trip the governor made no secret of the fact that he was examining the grade crossings on the steam railroads of the state with a view to having some of their dangers eliminated.

The commission is now asking the railroad companies for drawings showing the most dangerous grade crossings on their lines whether in cities or rural districts. The object of the plan is to discover how many cases the dangers of the grade crossings may be minimized by the removal of obstructions to the view obtained by drivers so that the liability of accidents at such points may be lessened.

There are several of these dangerous grade crossings in Lake county but one of the worst is located at Gurnee where the St. Paul road passes through the village. The road bed is high at this point and the highway on either side leads up to the tracks at a sharp grade. The view of anyone approaching is obscured until practically upon the tracks.

That serious accidents with perhaps loss of life has not occurred has been good fortune more than anything else. The steep grade and the fact that motorists hesitate to drive their machines up it at a rapid rate is held responsible for the "stalling" of so many engines when the autos are on the tracks. If the grade could be made less steep or the view of the tracks on either side left unimpeded the danger of an accident would be lessened over one hundred per cent. It is very probable that this crossing together with other of a similar nature in Lake county will be brought to the attention of the commission.

There are several of these dangerous grade crossings in Lake county but one of the worst is located at Gurnee where the St. Paul road passes through the village. The road bed is high at this point and the highway on either side leads up to the tracks at a sharp grade. The view of anyone approaching is obscured until practically upon the tracks.

PREPARING FOR THE STOCK SHOW AT CHICAGO

Preliminaries of the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago, Nov. 29 to Dec. 6, have been completed. Entries are being tabulated and the groundwork laid for the best display of food animals and draft horses ever congregated in America or elsewhere. Entries largely outnumbered those of previous years and the galaxy of purebreds and fat live stock to be assembled may never meet in the competitive arena again.

Construction gangs are busy increasing show facilities, buildings are being enlarged or altered to accommodate the expansion of the exposition and unsurpassed accommodation will be furnished both exhibitors and spectators.

In consequence of impending shortage of beef, pork and mutton, producers all over the United States, and Canada are devising ways and means to expand production and on this account unusual interest is being taken in the 1913 exposition. The imperative lesson of economy in production will be taught forcibly and effectively by the men who are now engaged in adopting their methods to changing conditions. New feeding and breeding problems will be presented in the stage of at least partial solution at this gathering.

The International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago will be so dissimilar from previous events of the same nature that both those seeking instruction and diversion will be well rewarded by attending.

Would Bar the Speeches.
A member of parliament enlivened a political club luncheon by telling the story of a certain famous politician who attended a banquet at which it was expected important speeches would be made. A dish of whitebait was set before him and, after looking at the fish and then at the other guests he remarked: "Gentlemen, let us follow the example of these little fish—drink a good deal, and say nothing!"

British Fish Harvest.
Sixty-two varieties of fish, including great white flat fish, red shell fish, tiny freshwater crayfish, silvery salmon, dark skinned eels, and yellow dried haddocks were ranged in the aisle of the Church of St. Magnus the Martyr about 11 a. m. on Sunday. The harvest thanksgiving service was held at 11.30.

COUNTY TO ME VIEW COMPETITIVE SPELLING SENSATION

All Counties of State Asked to Take Part in Novel Spelling Event

EACH COUNTY TO COMPLY MEN OBTAINS A WRIT

County Superintendent is Instructed to Hold Examinations Soon—Antioch Some Good Material

The tendency in all education is to swing from one extreme to another. There was a time, no doubt, relatively too much time was spent on spelling, to the neglect of important subjects. It is by the present time we have gone to the other direction. A county superintendent does not believe it will do much good to begin a sort of a reversion to the subject of correct spelling, but, than the ability to write, or consulting a dictionary or plan, involves a contest in spelling. The county superintendent is instructed to hold examinations soon—Antioch Some Good Material

The bill filed in court by Mrs. Mason states among other things: "That she has been postmistress for eight years during which, up to Nov. 8, last, she and her husband resided together in said town of Vernon as husband and wife, that two children, now living, were born; that during the time she has been postmistress, her husband has not engaged in any business for himself and that they have lived in the same building where the postoffice is located."

"That immediately prior to March 1913, they decided to rent a farm in Vernon and stock it and equip it, the farm being owned by Elmer Easton, 85 acres and the rent to be $330 a year. "That her salary as postmistress is $60 a month and that she advanced all her salary, $480 for the period ending Oct. 31, for the purchase of said farm equipment."

"That her husband advanced some money, just how much she doesn't know, but she believes it less than what she advanced for her salary. "That the family secured its support from the farm during 1913, but that she believes it is unprofitable to conduct the farm under the plan during the three years' lease; that she has boarded the farm hands in the house where the postoffice is located, said house being used as the postoffice and farm house; that she has done all the housework; that on Nov. 7, 1913, she heard a rumor that her husband had sold everything off the farm; that the next morning when she asked him he would not give her an answer, but left the house and has not returned since."

"That much of the stock has been taken from the farm, including 21 head of young stock, on Nov. 8th, but has sold all the rest of the stock and machinery as well as the 21 head; that she has heard her husband has sold his lease and stock to one O. I. Rockenback and Julius Reimes and that she knows nothing of the transaction and that she believes the parties to the deal had knowledge that the sale was being made with her consent."

Industrious Firemen.
Firemen in Amsterdam have little idle time. Many of them are skilled workmen. Every station has its own workshop, where all repairs are made, and where automobiles are built, except as to the chassis. Amsterdam was one of the first cities to put motor apparatus into use in the fire department.

To Make a Hat Fit.
"Follow my advice, and your derby will stand any Woolworth or Flatiron gust," said a Broadway business man to his companion, as the latter brushed his recalcitrant lid with his coat sleeve. "When I buy a new hat I always heat the band over a gas jet, put it on my head and let it cool there. Result—perfect fit. Try it!"—New York Tribune.

Competent and disinterested persons will be chosen by the Committee to select and pronounce words for the State contest.

A complete list of contestants should be in the hands State Supt. Blair on or before Dec. 20, 1913.

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the winners of the State contest.

Each County Superintendent whose county participates shall pay a fee of $2 to defray necessary expenses. Last year Lake county students took part in a county-wide spelling contest, but there was no state contest, hence the winners in the county event participated on other place. Supt. Simpson in an interview declares the chances are the winner of the county contest this year will win the state contest.

GRAND AND PETIT JURORS

List of Men Who Will Serve on Grand Jury and two Panels of Petit Jury

The December Grand Jury and the two panels of Petit Jurors have been drawn and are as follows:

December 1st Grand Jury

Ralph Rose, F. L. Norris, Benton; E. M. Ames, Newport; J. C. James, Nels Nelson, Antioch; Truman Willey, Grant; William Bonner, Lake Villa; Henry Edwards, Avon; Chester Ames, Warren; John Maynard, Chas. Schneider, Lee McDonald, Waukegan; Reuben Miller, P. A. Peters, Shields; Thomas Corlett, Libertyville; Robert Luebke, Fremont; Herbert W. Cook, Wauconda; Wm. Daverman, Cuba; Dedrich Hillman, Elia; Herman Albrecht, Vernon; James O'Connor, West Deerfield; Sellar Bullard, J. J. Brand, Deerfield.

Petit Jury, First Panel, Dec. 1.

Circuit Court—John Drury, Jas. G. Nelson, Geo. Wilkenson, Benton; Wallace Brewer, Geo. E. Bartlett, Elmer Murrie, Antony Leable, Newport; Gorm Anderson, J. W. Johnson, Chas. Griffin, Antioch; N. S. Burnett, L. D. Potter, Warren; Jas. Woodman, Waukegan; E. Bollinger, Frank Dunn, W. N. Freye, P. L. Mullen, Wm. Waters, Shields; Dan Morrison, Libertyville; Frank Gross, Fremont; Wm. Boyer, Cuba; W. Graber, Ernest Lehman, C. G. Small, Elia; W. J. Sauer, Amos Farmer, H. H. Albrecht, Vernon; Geo. Gutzler, John Ott, Jr., Woodman Todd, West Deerfield; Jas. Bowden, E. M. Conrad, Emil Carlson, Joe Gourley, H. Hanson, J. C. Shields, Deerfield.

Petit Jury, Second Panel, Dec. 15.

Circuit Court—G. L. Beckett, John T. Johnson, W. A. Brooks, W. J. Sams, Arnold Taft, Benton; John Corris, Allen Dixon, Newport; Jake Christenson, Antioch; Leslie Bonner, Warren; Fred Boller, John P. Johnson, D. A. Hutton, Phil Maiman, C. Lutter, P. R. Simmons, Mike Shebesta, Ed. Tobin, Chas. White, Fred Hoffmeister, Waukegan; Clem Nolan, W. H. Heime, Alex. Robertson, Edw. W. Wallace, Shields; Bert Austin, Harry Gleason, Henry Lawrence, Libertyville; Roy Seymour, Geo. E. Prouty, Wauconda; Arnold Schauble, Cuba; Emil Nickoley, Geo. A. Prusia, Elia; J. W. Hutchins, Geo. B. Moson, Vernon; Ralph Knickerbocker, West Deerfield; C. O. Larson, J. L. Proctor, Deerfield.

ANTIOCH NAMED AS DEFENDANT IN SUIT SATURDAY

The village of Antioch is named defendant in a suit, the papers of which were filed in the Circuit Court Clerk's office Saturday, asking for the recovery of damages amounting to $500. The plaintiff in the suit is the Williams and Dupre company.

According to the paper placed on file the Williams-Dupre company put in a series of piping on three streets in the village of Antioch and were to receive the contract price of something over $4,000. The plaintiff avers they were paid all but $100 of this amount and that for some unknown reason to them the board of local improvements of Antioch, under whose direction they worked, refused to pay the balance of $100. In starting the suit the company is asking $500 damages. This amount being considered sufficient to pay for the time and trouble incurred by them in trying to get the money outside the courts.

ANTIOCH WOMAN SHARES IN $300,000 ESTATE

By the will approved in Cook county court Saturday of John Logeman in which $300,000 worth of property is disposed of, Mrs. Louise H. L. Huber of Antioch, Lake county, becomes a beneficiary to the estate.

Mrs. Huber is mentioned as a daughter of Mr. Logeman. Chicago papers mentioned seven children who become beneficiaries if the estate which would make the proportion that comes to the Lake county woman something like $43,000.

Wagon With Sails.

In 1692 one of the wonders to be seen at The Hague was a wagon or a ship or a combination of both. A traveler of that time wrote: "This engine hath wheels and sails, will hold above twenty people and goes with the wind, being drawn or moved by nothing else, and will run, the wind being good, above fifteen miles an hour upon the even hard sands."

British Columbia's Timber.
With the exception of Siberia, Brazil (and the northwestern United States), British Columbia's timber wealth is reported to be unparalleled in any other country.

HUNTER IN CLOSE CALL

Trying to Recover Wounded Duck Waukegan Man Nearly Loses Life

RESCUED IN NICK OF TIME

Broke Oar and Was Carried Into Lake by High Wind Which Whipped Up Lake Ten Feet High, Sunday

The desire to recover a wounded duck nearly cost Wallie Sunderlin of Waukegan, his life Sunday morning when one of the oars with which he was rowing a small boat broke and he was swept a mile out into the lake.

The lake was stirred by what local marine men claim was the biggest storm of years. Waves dashed completely over the pier and frequently over the breakwater light. A score of hunters had taken a position on the south pier to hunt ducks. They were stationed about halfway out, near where the lighthouse formerly stood. Several of these hunters were provided with small boats in which they rowed out to recover ducks when they wounded them. These boats were on the south side of the pier where the heavy piling protected them. On the other side they would have been dashed to pieces.

Sunderlin winged a duck and climbed down into his little boat he rowed out to recover it. He was pulling lustily as the roughness of the lake required more than the ordinary amount of exertion. Suddenly and without warning one of his oars snapped and he was helpless.

In vain he sought to row by means of the remaining oar. He was against him and despite his efforts he was carried rapidly to the east. He cried out for one of the hunters to take him another onlookers say would have been helplessly easy at the time, of them stirred, realizing there was a certain amount of danger attached to it.

Finally a small boy ran all the way out to the end of the pier and notified Tews. "I would not have gone out for a million dollars but it was different when there was a life at stake," he said.

Without waiting to hear more he rushed back to the point where the hunters' boats were drawn up along the pier and leaping into one of them began to row with powerful strokes toward the other boat which now was fully half a mile away. Tews is a splendid oarsman but never did he handle his boat with greater skill. It was all he could do to prevent the giant waves from swamping his little boat. Gradually he overhauled the boat containing Sunderlin. He realized that he would have to hurry as Sunderlin's boat was filled with water almost to the gunwale and it was wallowing painfully, threatening to go down at any moment.

It was fully a mile from the pier where Tews came within hailing distance of the other boat. He redoubled his efforts at the oars. As his boat approached within a few feet, an extra heavy wave dashed over Sunderlin's boat and completely filled it, it sank rapidly. At this moment Tews brought his boat over the spot where Sunderlin's boat had disappeared from sight. Sunderlin managed to crawl over the stern at the imminent risk of capsizing the boat and took the extra pair of oars. The boat was turned around and then began a terrific battle as they were rowing against the wind and it seemed as if they were not making a foot of progress at times. It took an hour and a half for the two men to row back to the south pier and both were drenched to the skin.

Tews takes no credit to himself, "It was God's will," he said. "I knew he would not fail me and he didn't. Without his assistance my boat could not have reached Sunderlin in time. I will give the entire credit to God."

Truth and Life.
Where the seeking of truth begins, always the life commences, too; so soon as the seeking of truth is abandoned life ceases.—John Ruskin.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY
A. B. JOHNSON, Editor and Prop.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
One copy, one year, in advance, $1.00
Advertising Rates Will be Furnished Upon Application
Telephone Antioch 581

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1913

STANDING OF CONTESTANTS AT THE CITY SHOE STORE

Standing of the contestants for the piano, sewing machine, gold watch and toilet set for the week ending, November 5, is as follows:

Contestant's Number	Contestant's votes	Contestant's Number	Contestant's votes
1.....10000	92.....16725	101.....12450
2.....72285	93.....11325	102.....12450
3.....6000	94.....44555	103.....13350
4.....6270	95.....13985	104.....12325
5.....58875	96.....10250
6.....13000	97.....10525
7.....8450	98.....10025
8.....104000	99.....40160
9.....17750	100.....12275
10.....20000	101.....12450
11.....25810	102.....12450
12.....177635	103.....13350
13.....11000	104.....12325
14.....11000
15.....39000	105.....10675
16.....10000	106.....11950
17.....13000	107.....11825
18.....36035	108.....12525
19.....10000	109.....13125
20.....11000	110.....13150
21.....38250	111.....10275
22.....24760	112.....11175
23.....32000	113.....17300
24.....11850	114.....9975
25.....19775	115.....13725
26.....18500	116.....13595
27.....35605	117.....9815
28.....11550	118.....10015
29.....12000	119.....13000
30.....595850	120.....12950
31.....7000	121.....11775
32.....12200	122.....11250
33.....15000	123.....12625
34.....12500	124.....13495
35.....13000	125.....9500
36.....17000	126.....9825
37.....10250	127.....10625
38.....13000	128.....7275
39.....14200	129.....11125
40.....13850	130.....13250
41.....16000	131.....14125
42.....27840	132.....12125
43.....10000	133.....13425
44.....10565	134.....10875
45.....33600	135.....11495
46.....12445	136.....10370
47.....14525	137.....14835
48.....14750	138.....10660
49.....58205	139.....27000
50.....14025	140.....15125
51.....25035	141.....11475
52.....14250	142.....11375
53.....10850	143.....10875
54.....12000	144.....13250
55.....15935	145.....140675
56.....19100	146.....11075
57.....21120	147.....12125
58.....46060	148.....10875
59.....27550	149.....10775
60.....46806	150.....13425
61.....15975	151.....13275
62.....15000	152.....13530
63.....15775	153.....15825
64.....15525	154.....10575
65.....13850	155.....13125
66.....29635	156.....107575
67.....15000	157.....10275
68.....15225	158.....13125
69.....11780	159.....12735
70.....12700	160.....12825
71.....16000	161.....2000
72.....35650	162.....13025
73.....5000	163.....32500
74.....15560	164.....13250
75.....13050	165.....10035
76.....13350	166.....12100
77.....14475	167.....13720
78.....14950	168.....586305
79.....16450	169.....13125
80.....13725	170.....13075
81.....13450	171.....11525
82.....10725	172.....11925
83.....10950	173.....11575
84.....11825	174.....84370
85.....59810	175.....10480
86.....11725	176.....10575
87.....16225	177.....11475
88.....13925	178.....15125
89.....11425	179.....30315
90.....31845	180.....14335
91.....11625	181.....33725

AUCTION SALES

The undersigned having decided to quit farming will sell at public auction on the Old Gannon farm, situated 1/2 mile south of Wilmet and 1 1/2 miles north of Hatches Corners, on Tuesday, November 18 Commencing at 10 o'clock sharp the following property to-wit:
28 head of cattle—16 milk cows, 6 close springers, bull 18 month old, 2 2-year old heifers, coming in soon, 7 yearlings, bull 2 months old.
Horses—One team 5 and 6 years old, Silver Dukes, wt 2800, team of Bays, 14 and 15 years old wt 2800. Black horse 12 years old wt 1200, colt coming 3 years old. 3 brood sows, 4 shoats, 150 hens.

Feed—400 bu oats, 400 bushels corn in cribb, 15 tons tame hay, 2 tons alfalfa, 4 tons millet, stack straw, stack stalks, 2 stacks of corn, 300 shocks of corn, 50 tons of silage, 7 bu seedwheat.
Machinery—McCormick grain binder, Osborne corn binder, sulky plow, 4 walking plows, braking plow, 2 sulky cultivators, 2 single cultivators, pulverizer, Buck eye seeder, grass seeder, corn planter, Ohio silage cutter with 30 ft carrier, new, fanning mill, feed grinder, 2 set drags, corn drags, 2 truck wagons, hay rake, milk wagon, road wagon, cart, 2 sets hay racks, wagon box, hog rack, set dump boards, light bob sleigh, heavy hob sleigh, set wagon springs, 2 sets double harness, planker, sow frame with 2 blades, saddle, 12 milk cans, scraper, potato digger, 30 bu potatoes, potato hiller, 90-ft belt, hay fork, 140 Pope and pulleys, pumping jack, 2 silo racks, 1000 lb scales and many other articles too numerous to mention.
Free lunch at noon.
Usual terms.
Chas. Mecklenburg, Prop.
Geo Vogel, Auctioneer.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Names of pupils neither absent nor tardy during the month of October:
High School Room—Jannette Wallace, Jennie Willett, Pearl Harrower, Viola Kuhaupt, Marie Johannott, Vera Miller, Ruth Pollock, Laura Myers, Tesesa Hoyer, Daniel Lewis, John Morley, Elmer Harrower, Walter Frazier, Adolph Pesat, Madgelyn Strang, Walter Forbrick, Laurel Powles, George Lewis, Marguerite McCullough, Anna Drom, Evelyn Hoyer, Charity Hillebrand, Ruth Kinrade, Russell Smith, Charles Tiffany, Leland Watson, James and Charles Horan, Harold Huber. 1/2 holiday.
Grammar Room—Gertrude Behrens, Edwin, Margaret and Grace Drom, Myrtle Haynes, Gerald and Genevieve Pierce, Jessie and Alonzo Runyard, Frank Spangard, Leonard Stickle, Mona and Raymond Taylor, Virgil Felter, Irene Keulman, Vera Kinrade, Mildred LaPlant, Carl Naber, Elsie and Gladys Panowski, Virgie Radtke, Marguerite Savage, Elizabeth Tenbroggen, Susan Tiffany, Lena Spafford, Louise Dupre, Carrie Horcher, Wm. Morley, Edna Richards, Merrill Sabin, Louis Shultis, Georgia Van Patten. 1/2 holiday.
Intermediate Room—Priscilla Conrad, Lula and Anna Wedel, Willard Chinn, Edward Girard, Elmer Webb, Clarence Volkman, Phyllis Morley, Gordon Wells, Wesley Wertz, Antoinette Smart, Ruth Kettlehut, Gordon Ames, Beulah Harrison, Letha LaPlant, Howard Spafford, Earl Dibble, Russell Keulman, Elma Volkman, Stella Brownell, Violet King, Leota Savage, Marion Spangard, Daisy Richards, Lucile Huber. 1/2 holiday.
Primary Room—Albert Tiffany, Ardis Grimm, Jean Reading, George Feltham, Arthur Behrens, Einar Peterson, Viola Waters, Marshall King, Albert Herman, Ada Chinn, Dorothy Beebe, Wesley Conrad, Edith Edgar, Helen and Irene Kettlehut, Harold Sullivan, Olive Dibble, Kenneth Brownell, Marguerite Grice, Reginald, Stixrud, Aretas Keulman, Egan Christensen, Martha Hillebrand, Myrtle Norman, Susan Drom, Charles Alvers, Tommy Waters, Roy and Eva Boudin, Eunice Hill. 1/2 holiday.
Dangerous Case.
Louise—“Troubled with loss of appetite, isn't she?” Julia—“She doesn't even want to eat the things that the doctors forbid.”—Life

Good Coffee Costs Less

It's the poor coffee that's expensive. High grade coffee yields more cups to the pound than low grade—there is more strength in the high grade berries. And there's little satisfaction in coffee that lacks a full, rich flavor.
You are choosing a high grade coffee, but an inexpensive one, when you fail to get the good MEX-O-JA.
From every pound you can make 40 cups of delicious coffee—more if you like it mild. The cost is less than a penny a cup.
MEX-O-JA Coffee is packed in a specially constructed bag enclosed in a protector carton with broad green and red stripes.

The Price May Change—The Quality Never
Price subject to revision according to the cost of raw material.
30 Cents Per Pound

THE NEWS, ANTIOCH, ILL.

Circuit Court
State of Illinois,
County of Lake.
December Term.
George E. Webb,
M. Hodge, Ruby A. Ma
P. Boylan vs. the ar law and devisees of at deceased, Daniel Rowy
heirs at law and dwn
Rowley, deceased, ael owners of and person
real estate in the Bill de scribed, in Chancery
The requisite affida
filed in the office of th
Court.
Notice is therefore he
the said above named an fendants, that the above plainants heretofore filed Complaint in said Court,

every side thereof, and that a summons thereupon issued out of said Court against the above named defendants, returnable on the first day of the term of the Circuit Court of Lake County, to be held at the Court House in Waukegan in said Lake County, on the first Monday of December A. D. 1913, as by law required, and which suit is still pending.
Lewis O. Brockway, Clerk.
Waukegan, Illinois, October 22nd, A. D. 1913.
D. L. Jones, Complainant's Solicitor.

Greeks Played Dominoes.
The game of dominoes has been variously traced to Greek, Hebrew and Chinese origin. Early in the eighteenth century it was introduced into France from Italy, and the Cafe de l'Opera was long the headquarters for expert players. From France it spread to England, Germany and America.

Monarch Malle Range

LET us show you the many features of the Monarch that are different from those of any other range, just how each feature operates to save you steps, care and drudgery; how you need never use stove blacking or have smutty kettles to clean; how you may always know that you can depend on satisfactory results.

FRANK J. HUNT
Antioch, Illinois
Demonstration at

Hunts Friday, Nov. 15

DEAR MR. CUSTOMER:

Don't be weak on the price position, it's really a secondary consideration.

"Quality is remembered long after price is forgotten"

A growth based on honest endeavor to give quality, to emphasize the good, to avoid error, permanent and carries within itself an impetus for continual advancement.

We handle the very best material on the market, and our prices are based upon the Quality of the article.

PLUMBING & HEATING, a special.
Strictly sanitary plumbing (Guaranteed) whether your water supply is from city or otherwise.

Prices and Estimates given on the following:
Hot water, steam, warm air furnace heating, acetylene and gasoline gaspiping and fixtures, pneumatic water supply systems, gasoline and kerosene engines, pumps and wells supplies, pipe and fitting. Galvanized iron cornices, eaves troughs and gutter, builders hardware, stoves and ranges, gasoline and kerosene stoves, fishing tackle, American wire field fencing, guns and ammunition National copper cable lightning rods and

General Repairing
Illustrating and Quoting Exceptionally low prices, on

MERCHANDISE OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
Williams Bros. Antioch Store
Inc. Established 1871
Phones—Long Distance and Farmers Line
Ask for our HOME TRADE PRICE MAKER CATALOGUE

November Usher Winter.

Don't Delay Long the Purchase of Your Winter

Suit or Coat

Every outfit off buying your winter suit or coat you deprive yourself of an extra day's salary if you put the buy longer you will be face with the Thanksgiving days without your suit or coat.

The Time Now and the Place is Here, because this offers you the choice of the most stylish garments in women. Garments that are quality from the outset. Our suits are built of fabrics the best wool, are lined with materials, and are finished with workmanlike skill that we guarantee two full seasons' service.

Distinct Models
New styles
Qualitative fabrics
$100
$300

A Touch of Class

In Tailoring

Have you a suit of clothes that looks without fault, look ordinary in place on you?

You probe, because nine out of ten are open to criticism.

It matters not price you pay you get this

Now what that that mat clothes we call it "A Touch of Class" what you will find in one of our Kaufmann's Models—Suits, coats.

They are the best of the finest tailoring in the world and the cost no more than ordinary clothes of most stores.

Coats From $0. to 0.

Suits From $15 to 25

Carfare Refunded to all Out-Town Purchasers, or $5 or more.

Waukegan Illinois

The Globe DEPARTMENT STORE

Waukegan Illinois

LOCAL ITEMS

Local Announcement and the Elgin Butter Market.

ELGIN, ILL., Nov. 10.—The committee declared butter at 31c.

Special—Long Mackinaw coat $7.00, adv.

Mrs. Wm. Runyard is very ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Techert of Chicago spent Sunday with friends here.

The Fisher Shipp Concert company at the Methodist church, the evening of Nov. 14.

Mr and Mrs. O'Mara of Chicago visited at the home W. T. Taylor on Tuesday.

Louie Rothers, with a party of friends from Chicago left on Monday for Northern Wisconsin deer hunting.

For Rent—A six room house on Channel Lake. Inquire H. H. Crandall, Antioch, No. 3.

Mrs. Will Cairns and daughter of Richmond are visiting at the home of W. H. Osmond and family.

Mrs. Dorrance has accepted the agency for the Singer Sewing machine so you will find them in the same building as formerly.

Lost—Wednesday afternoon a lady's pocket book, somewhere in the store district. Fiedler please leave at this office. Reward.

The Liberty Cemetery Helpers will meet with Mrs. Henry Lubeno Tuesday noon, Nov. 18. All are invited. Maude S. Robbins, sec.

Those who saw the Chicago Dramatic club last May in "A Day in a Country" will not fail to see production of "When a Man Marries."

John Morley of this village and Frank Fraas and Jas. Hubert of Chicago left Monday for West Frankport, Ill., for a few days quail shooting.

Mrs. Frank Sanders and children of Glendive, Mont., and Mrs. Fred Carr of Spring Grove, were guests at the home of the Mr. and Mrs. Omond the last of the week.

Fred Barber of Chetek arrived here Thursday evening of last week. This is the first time in nine years that he has made the home folks a visit. He expects to be here about three weeks.

Chicago Dramatic club will present "When a Man Marries" at the opera house Saturday evening.

Antioch Cemetery society will have a Parcel Sale and Supper in the basement of the M. E. church on Wednesday, Nov. 19. The parcels consist of a great variety of fancy work etc., any of them suitable for Christmas gifts. Every package is worth from 25 cents to $1. Your choice for 25 cents.

Menu
Roast beef brown gravy mashed potatoes relish
brown bread turnips
pickles rolls cake cheese
tea coffee
Price 25 cents. School children 10 cents.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1914 Almanac

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1914 almanac is now ready and will be mailed prepaid for only 35c. Professor Hicks' fine Magazine, Word and Works, for one year, and a copy this Almanac for only one dollar. The plain lessons on astronomy, and the correct forecasts of storms, drouths, blizzards and tornadoes, make these publications a necessity in every home in America. Send to Word and Works Publishing Company, 3401 Franklin avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Collier's

The National Weekly

First Time
in Clubs

Until this year Collier's has been sold at $5.50. Now the price is $2.50 and we have secured a concession whereby we can offer it at a still further reduction in connection with this publication.

Special Offer to Our Readers

Recognizing the great demand for Collier's at the new price, we have made arrangements to offer it and our own publication each one year for the price of Collier's alone. This is a limited offer and must be taken advantage of promptly.

What You Get in Collier's

Collier's is the one big, independent, fearless weekly of the whole country. Not only is it the good citizen's handbook but it is also a magazine for the whole family. Among the things that a year's subscription gives are:

1000 Editorials
600 News Photos
250 Short Stories
100 Illustrated Features
2 Complete Novels

Collier's $2.50 Both for only $1.00

For Sale—A seven room house. Inquire Sam Ries, Antioch.

Miss Fisher Shipp will please you with her reading and singing.

Lovers of vocal art will be pleased with the solos by Miss Harrington.

Chas. Holmes of Nebraska, was the guest of his father-in-law, John Drury, last week.

For Sale—Full blood white leghorn cockrels, fine 8 months birds. E. By Williams.

Miss Barry as a talented violinist and great merit to the varied program to be given by the Concert company.

James Hayes and family formerly of Waukegan, but now of Libertyville, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. W. E. Hoyt left the first of the week for Kaukauna, Wis., where she will spend the winter with her sister.

Melvin B. Little, a policeman at Rockford for twenty-six years, is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Be sure to see the 3-act comedy "When a Man Marries" at Antioch opera house, on November 29.

For Sale—A closed carriage in good condition, 6 passenger. Can be driven single or double. Apply W. H. Howe, Lake Catherine.

There will be a masked ball at the Antioch opera house on Wednesday evening, Nov. 26. Hanneman's orchestra will furnish the music.

For Sale—Two story seven room house, barn, two lots. Plenty of shade and fruit. For particulars call at this office, or address C. C. King, Box 254, Antioch, Illinois. 5tf adv.

Hear Mr. Loar play an instrument of his own invention, the mando-viola; it has the volume and richness of a pipe organ, Friday evening, Nov. 14, at the Methodist church.

All persons furnishing packages for Parcel Sale, please leave them with one of committee by Monday, Nov. 17.

Nellie Morley,
Artie E. Grice,
Mary Smart.

Agents Wanted—Highest cash weekly and part expenses. Outfit free. Home territory. Experience unnecessary. Our contract the fairest ever written. Under our plan you can make $20 per week and up, over and above expenses. Write Hawks Nursery company, Wauwatosa, Wis.

A Women's Christian Temperance Union was this week organized in this village, with a membership enrollment of thirty. The first meeting was held at the home D. A. Williams last Thursday and on Wednesday afternoon of this week a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Johannott for the purpose of completing arrangements. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Harrower; Vice President, Mrs. Ferris; Treasurer, Mrs. Johonett; Secretary, Mrs. Espey.

A wedding of great interest to many Lake county people was celebrated at St. Thomas church, Kenosha, at half past 8 o'clock Tuesday morning when Miss Mary Hove, daughter of Patrick Hove of Antioch, became the bride of Dexter P. Kent, well known employee of the Chicago-Kenosha Hosiery company of Kenosha. The marriage ceremony was read by the Rev. Father Malone. The bride was attended by Miss Lena Hove as maid of honor and Carl Zievers was the best man. The couple went south on their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home in Kenosha.

Eugene Hawkins and daughter Lila are sick with typhoid fever.

First number of the Entertainment Course, Friday evening, Nov. 14.

The Oetting Bros., are rebuilding their ice house that was destroyed by fire last winter.

Feed Grinding—Having bought a new feed grinder I will grind feed every Monday and Saturday. Victor Chinn.

The price of a season ticket for the course of four numbers is $1.50 for adults, $1 for children. Single admission 50 cents for adults, 35 cents for children.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES

SUNDAY SERVICES

10:30 a. m. Preaching service.

11:45 a. m. Sunday School.

6:30 p. m. Epworth League devotional service.

7:30 p. m. Song and Preaching service.

7:30 p. m. Wednesday Prayer Meeting.

Rev. Satterfield D. D. of Chicago will preach next Sunday morning. Don't fail to hear him. The pastor will preach at the evening service. Special music at both services.

Don't forget the first number of the lecture course, Friday evening, Nov. 14. We had 27 out to our Bible Study and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday of last week. We are studying the Gospel of Matthew. Come next Wednesday and bring your bibles.

The pastor desires to invite to the services of our church all who are not members of, or attendants in other churches. The poor and the rich are invited, people of all creeds and of no creed at all will be equally welcome. "Meet me face to face" at the M. E. church next Sunday.

A. O. Stixrud.

The huge lock gates on the Panama Canal are controlled by Electric Power.

They are the heaviest ever built. No other power but Electric could meet the conditions so perfectly. A touch of a little switch applies tremendous energy.

This Master Force democratic—it works well on a small as on a big scale.

It will light your home with an incandescent artificial light and give you power to do hard work.

The cost of its service is low. Is your house wired? Let us tell you how easily and cheaply you can put in electricity the modern improvement.

Public Service Company of Northern Illinois

DO YOU WISH THE BEST
AT THE LEAST COST?

THEN make our store your buying home, wherever in Burlington, Wis. Those of you, who are acquainted with us, know what it means for you, when we say, larger stocks, with more and better values than ever before.

Those of you who are not, get acquainted! From now until Christmas we will refund your RAILROAD FARE on any purchase of $10.00 or over, if you will cut out this AD and bring it with you.

WM. ROSENBERG

Burlington's only up-to-date dry-goods and wearing apparel store

Wisconsin

FEED GRINDING

Having a new feed grinding outfit, I will grind feed for you.

of each Lake St. A. V. Prop.

Antioch, Ill.

Winter Overcoats
and Suits

We are showing exceptional values in men's and boy's suits and overcoats, of fine wool materials, large stock to select from.

All wool suits from $8.00 to $18.00

Men's mackinaw overcoats from $5.50 to $7.00

Fur coats, in dog and cow at $18.00 to $25.00

Sheep-skin-lined coats $5.00 to $8.00

Men's and Boy's sweater coats at $1. to $6.

Men's and Boy's winter caps at .50 to $2.50

Men's, Boys all wool underwear, suit $2. to $3.

Chase Webb. - - - Antioch, Ill.

Clearing Sale of Overcoats

$6 to $9 value, $3.00 $10 to $15 value, $6.00

Greatest bargains ever offered in Lake County for good solid reliable goods.

IF YOU WANT AN OVERCOAT COME NOW

Winter coats, all wool Malone pants, underwear, sweaters, furnishing goods. Full line seasonable dry goods and notions.

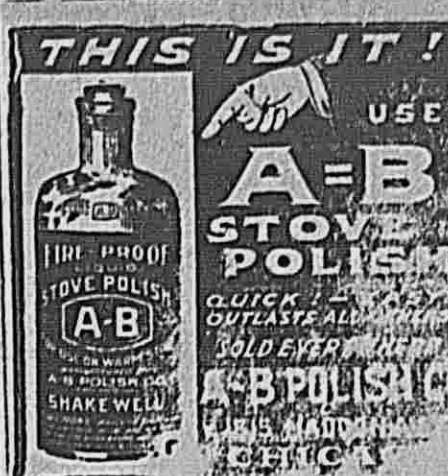

REDUCED PRICES ON SHOES

Special Prices on all Rubber Goods

A few Specimen Grocery Prices

German Sweet Chocolate.....	5c	Macaroni.....	8c
Baker's Premium Chocolate... 15c		Spaghetti.....	8c
Baker's Cocoa 1-2 pound..... 19c		3 Cans Corn.....	25c
Old Dutch Cleanser.....	8c	5 pkgs. Breakfast Flakes.....	25c
Mason Jar Cocoa.....	21c	6 pkgs. Corn Starch.....	25c
Carnation Milk, tall can.....	8c	Fels Naphthia Soap 6 bars for.....	25c
Carnation Milk, small can.....	4c	6 pkgs. Gloss Starch.....	25c
Kellogg's Corn Flakes.....	8c	American Family Soap 6 for.....	25c
Arm & Hammer Soda.....	6c	Lenox Soap, 9 bars for.....	25c

Williams Bros.
ANTIOCH DEPARTMENT STORE

L. G. STRANG

Licensed Embalmer and Funeral Directors

ANTIOCH, - - - ILLINOIS

Phone 311
Also Farmer's Line

BANK OF ANTIOCH

EDWARD BROOK
BANKER

Buy and Sell Exchange and do a General Banking Business

SEQUOIT LODGE No. 27, A. F. & A. M. hold regular communications the first and third Wednesday evenings of every month. Visiting Brethren always welcome.

FRANK HUBER, Sec'y
ELMER BROOK, W. M.
The Eastern Star meets second and fourth Thursdays of each month.
Dora Sabin, W. M.
IDA OSMOND, Sec'y

Lotus Camp No. 557 P. W. A. Meets at 7:30 the first and third Monday evening of every month in Woodmen hall, Antioch, Ill. Visiting neighbors always welcome.

ED. GARRETT, V. C.
J. C. James, Clerk

T. N. DONNELLY & CO.
Loan and Diamond Brokers
Number 24 North Dearborn St.
Diamonds, Watches and all kinds of Jewels at less than cost. At half the price for regular stores.
Dec 1914

J. C. JAMES, JR.
UNDERTAKER

LICENSED EMBALMER
Licensed by the State Board of Health

GALE CAUSES LOSS

FIFTY-MILE WIND SWEEPS EASTERN AND CENTRAL PART OF UNITED STATES.

TRAIN HITS TREE; 3 SLAIN

Chicago Suffers Damage of Thousands of Dollars and Other Places Report Losses—New Blizzard Forming—Boats Seek Shelter.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Low temperatures, riding on bitter gales of wind, settled down over the central and eastern parts of the United States on Sunday, reaching as far south as Florida.

Behind the first onrush of the thirty and fifty-mile blasts of wind lay wreckage of property on land and water, including telegraph lines, docks and shipping, houses and parks.

Lake men declared it the most severe and disastrous sea they had seen running on Lake Michigan in many years.

Three of the train crew were killed when a locomotive pulling a work train on the Laquette Lake railroad ran into a tree which had blown across the tracks near Utica, N. Y.

Milwaukee's $30,000 municipal breakwater, a part of the extensive new harbor project, was washed away in the storm, and more than that amount of damage was done to shipping in Milwaukee harbors. The entire equipment of the construction company building the breakwater was destroyed.

Detroit was practically without communication for hours. Telegraph companies were crippled east and south and electric lines were tied up by trees across tracks and trolley wires.

All up and down Michigan the storm wrought havoc Calumet, Houghton, Hancock, Marquette, Ironwood and Lake Linden suffered in a gale of a mile a minute, while snow fell heavily. Lake traffic was closed. Boats tried to get away, but were forced to acid back into harbors for safety.

Uprooted trees and signs littered streets in Jackson, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Albion, Alpena, Grand Rapids and Bay City. Several persons were injured by broken glass in Detroit.

Through Ohio, Indiana, western Pennsylvania and southern Michigan snow and high winds that co-operated as fierce blizzards made travel nearly impossible, delayed rail traffic and tore down miles of telegraph wires.

Even in Georgia and Florida the thermometer was at the freezing point. West and northwest of Chicago there was less suffering, save in the Canadian Northwest, where a new storm and cold wave, much more severe than the one engulfing the United States, was forming, ready to drop southeast into this country at the end of the week.

More than $150,000 damage was done in Chicago to docks and filled-in land. Hundreds of thousands of persons lined the lake shore and chattered in the cold all day watching the great waves that washed over the Lake Shore drive, made the outer driveway in Lincoln park unsafe, left the German building in Jackson park and the convent of La Rabida surrounded by newly formed lakes, swept over a 12-foot pier in Jackson park, smashed pleasure boats and imperiled even the rock-ballasted Illinois Central tracks.

In Lincoln park and near Fifth street, where millions of dollars' worth of newly made land had been formed, the huge waves washed inshore and carried thousands of cubic yards of soil away. William Nelsen, superintendent of Lincoln park, said $100,000 damage done near Fullerton avenue would set the work of park extension there back six months.

Eight hundred feet of concrete sidewalk and fifty feet of the 12-foot Sixty-fourth street pier gave way before the onrush of the waves in Jackson park.

The Carter Harrison, Lake View and four-mile cribs were endangered, waves washing over the protecting piling and into the crib-tenders' homes. Electric wires blown down in the city endangered the lives of hundreds of pedestrians.

The schooner The Boy, with Capt. W. Schlosser and a crew of seven men aboard, straggled through the rolling waves from Marinette, but could not make the harbor. Fearing a wreck the skipper heaved out an anchor, which held all afternoon, though the deck load of lumber was washed overboard.

Fourteen feet of snow banked up in the Cumberland mountains and stopped trains for hours. West Virginia east and west was in the grip of a blizzard with a foot of snow on the ground.

Impeachment Cost $125,000. New York, Nov. 11.—Bills for expenses incurred at the impeachment trial of William Sulzer, not including counsel fees, already total $125,000. Figures show that $75,000 has been expended and unpaid bills remain.

Vincent Astor to Marry. New York, Nov. 10.—Vincent Astor, the most eligible young man in America, is engaged to be married. The future Mrs. Astor is Miss Helen Huntington, daughter of R. P. Huntington, of Staatsburg, N. Y.

Robbery Causes Bank Failure. Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The private bank of E. A. Dunham & Company at Montour Falls was closed because of the robbery of $12,000 during the night. Yegmen drilled through four locks and got into the vault.

FOE'S AID TO CHANGE REGIONAL BANK REDUCTION.

Senate Banking Committee Makes Minor Changes in Bill During Its Session.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Changes in the line-up on the currency bill strengthened the position of the administration forces, but left the senate committee in a temporary deadlock Friday. Senator Reed and O'Gorman, who have been opposing administration proposals in the committee, rejoined the Democrats, and the committee voted to reconsider the decision which cut down from twelve to four the number of regional banks in the proposed new system.

Senator Crawford (Republican) voted with the Democrats to reconsider, but a discussion, which at times waxed warm and which lasted all afternoon, failed to force a vote on a proposition to fix the number of banks to seven. Senator Crawford said he had voted to reconsider solely as a matter of courtesy. He made it clear that he would not support a resolution to increase the number.

Senator Hitchcock made it plain that he would not swing into line with the other Democrats, and with a six to six tie in prospect the administration forces avoided a vote.

The administration senators succeeded in voting to retain the secretary of the treasury on the proposed federal reserve board.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE

Pawtucket, R. I., Nov. 8.—With a green cloth shopping bag drawn over her head and tied tightly under her chin, the body of Miss Margaret Preston of Valley Falls, was found floating in the Abbot Run stream.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 8.—A raid recently made by a mob in Havre, Mont., upon the Chinese quarter, when four Chinese were driven out of town and considerable property was destroyed, was the subject of a communication received by Governor Stuart from Secretary of State Bryan.

New York, Nov. 8.—Nearly a thousand taxicab chauffeurs decided at a mass meeting to accept an eleven-hour working day offered by the employers, thus receding from their demand for a ten-hour day, to enforce which they threatened to strike. The men formerly worked twelve hours.

Sheboygan, Wis., Nov. 8.—Bill Scott, better known as Steamboat Bill, was beaten by a narrow margin by Young Mahoney of Racine, in their ten-round battle, opening the boxing season here. Mahoney had a shade of every round but the first, fourth and sixth.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Dr. Andrew D. White, first president of Cornell university and former ambassador to Germany and Russia, observed his eighty-first birthday at his home here. Doctor White is in splendid health.

KING OTTO OF BAVARIA OUT

Prince Regent Ludwig Succeeds Him on Throne—Mad Monarch Ruled 27 Years.

Munich, Nov. 7.—King Otto, the insane monarch of Bavaria, was deposed here on Wednesday after "ruling" for 27 years.

Prince Regent Ludwig proclaimed himself king in pursuance of the provisions of a law just enacted by the two houses of the Bavarian diet. The new king is to be known as Ludwig III. He will take the constitutional oath probably on November 8.

THREE DIE IN TRAIN WRECK

Engines of Two Freight Trains Collided and Demolished by Collision Near Alliance, O.

Alliance, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Three men were killed and four injured in a collision of two freight trains on the Lake Erie, Alliance and Wheeling railroad southwest of this city Thursday.

The dead: John Martin, Alliance, brakeman. Howard Davis, Paris, Ohio, fireman. Unidentified man, died on way to hospital.

Four injured are in hospitals.

SHIPS COLLIDE IN PACIFIC

Steamer Pleiades on Way to Ancon, Panama, Strikes Another Boat and Is Damaged.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—The steamship Pleiades, which sailed for Ancon, Panama, was in collision with an unidentified vessel at night 15 miles south of San Francisco lights, according to a wireless message received by the Merchants' Exchange. The Pleiades asked for assistance, as it was seriously damaged. It is commanded by Capt. H. C. Armstrong.

Countess Shoots an Orderly. Genoa, Nov. 11.—Countess de Polo, member of a Venetian family and wife of Captain Oggioni, quartered at San Remo, shot an orderly. She said the man had entered her apartment and attacked her.

Dedicate $85,000 School. Sterling, Ill., Nov. 11.—Monsignor Thomas Shanahan of Washington, Bishop Muldoon and Attorney General Lucey spoke at the dedication of a new $85,000 parochial school in Sterling Sunday.

Quake Alarms in Messina. Messina, Sicily, Nov. 11.—A strong earthquake shock occurred here. It was followed by two shocks of less severity. No damage was done, but the people are greatly alarmed at the frequency of the disturbances.

NEWS, ANTIOCH, ILL. CALLED BY THE STRIKERS

This photograph shows in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were taken out of commission by the striking employees and their friends.

M'COMBS IS MAHUERTA WON'T QUIT

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION HEAD WEDS IN LONDON. Many of British Nobility Present. His Marriage to Miss Dorcas Williams.

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Dorcas Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony which witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days ago.

Lord Derby, head of England's proudest family, was the first to arrive. He was quickly followed by the early of Suffolk, the countess of Suffolk, who was Miss Margaret Hyde Leiter; the earl and countess of Craven, Rt. Rev. Henry Chaplin, one of the few remaining types of British aristocracy.

Ambassador and Mrs. Page arrived early and were followed by Ambassador Herrick, who came over from Paris. Colonel and Mrs. Colin Campbell and Frederick Townsend Martin were among the others.

RALSTON ENDS CAR STRIKE

Employees of Indianapolis Company Win Demand for Arbitration, But Fail to Get Union Recognition.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—The strike of the employees of the Indianapolis Traction & Terminal company was settled on Friday through the efforts of Governor Ralston. The employees won their demand for arbitration, but in the terms of settlement nothing is said about recognition of the union.

Street car service was resumed. All the men who were in the employ of the company Friday night, October 31, when the strike was called, and all employees who had been discharged on account of joining the union are to be reinstated by the company with full seniority rights and without prejudice. The company, however, is not compelled to reinstate men who engaged in violence during the strike, but the rejected men may appeal to the public utilities commission of Indiana for a hearing.

Woman Pleads in Supreme Court. Washington, Nov. 7.—Mrs. S. H. Sorin of Arizona appeared as the representative of a mining corporation in a big mining suit before the U. S. supreme court. Only on a few occasions have women addressed the court.

Election Disrupts a Town. Hammond, Ind., Nov. 10.—An unparalleled reign of political terror in East Chicago culminating in bloodshed, riot and murder has marked the election of W. F. Callahan, formerly of Chicago, for mayor, over Dr. A. G. Schilleker.

Eggs 75 Cents in New York. New York, Nov. 11.—Eggs are so scarce in New York that dealers have put the retail price up to 75 cents a dozen for the best quality, and prospects are that they will go from three to five cents a dozen higher.

Police Chief Quarantined. St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 11.—W. Gray, chief of police, and the executive officers of the department are forced to remain at the Central station under quarantine. It was discovered that a prisoner had smallpox.

Name Babes for Roosevelt. Buenos Aires, Nov. 11.—There will be Theodore Roosevelt, it here long after he has departed. Doctor Stark has been busy and most of the new arrivals have been named after the distinguished visitor.

BEILIS FREED BY JURY

TROOPS GUARD MAN FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MURDER FROM RUSSIANS.

VERDICT HITS SUPERSTITION

Result Triumph for Jewish Race as Well as Vindication of Innocent Man—Ends "Ritual Murder" Talk.

Kiev, Russia, Nov. 12.—Acquitted by the jury that had heard the evidence in his trial, Mendel Belis, the Jew accused by the government of "ritual murder," had to be escorted from the courthouse to his home by an escort of soldiers on Monday.

So angry was the crowd that jammed the little courtroom here, and so incensed did the larger crowd outside become when news of the verdict penetrated the walls, that it seemed for a time that the Russians would tear the acquitted defendant to pieces.

Only by marching with fixed bayonets was the escort of soldiery able to force a passage to the Belis cottage, which is scarcely a stone's throw from the courthouse. At night the entire district was patrolled by soldiers.

Once in the bosom of his family, for the first time in two years, Belis collapsed completely.

While his wife and children cowered at the sounds of conflict that followed the dispersal of the mob by the Cossacks, the man himself sank wearily upon a bed, his strength utterly exhausted.

The specific charge against Belis was that he had killed Andrew Yushinsky, a Christian boy, for the purpose of using his blood in a sacrificial ritual demanded by his religion.

The verdict, which the whole world awaited anxiously, is considered an final and telling blow to the "ritual murder" myth, which for hundreds of years has been used as an excuse for persecuting and slaying Jews.

"This is a victory for Belis but a greater verdict for the Jewish race in Russia," declared M. Groussenburg, leading counsel for the accused man.

Belis was overcome with joy. The big, strong laborer, who has withstood two years of most hideous tortures by the Russian police in their efforts to force him to confess to the "ritual murder," wept as he thanked the jurors and his lawyers.

The rejoicing among the Jews here over Belis' victory was one of silence. They dared not express their joy.

FEAR 40 DROWNED IN GALE

Port Huron Wreck Believed to Be Huge Ore Carrier Whose Cargo Shifted.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 12.—The greatest lake tragedy of the present year doubtless has occurred in Lake Huron as a result of the terrible gale which prevailed all Sunday night. About eight miles north of here a huge steel freighter has turned over, and it is presumed that every member of its crew of possibly forty men has gone to the bottom.

Just what ship it is is not known. Marine men think the boat may be an ore carrier, which became uncontrollable in the storm and shifted its cargo.

It was sighted by Captain Plough of the Lakeview life-saving station. His lifeboats had been wrecked in Sunday's gale and he reported the ship to the Red Wrecking company, which sent the tug Sarnia City to the scene. That craft is laying by, serving as a marker for other vessels.

The capsized vessel is one of the modern types of steel freighter, about 600 feet long and lies in about sixty feet of water.

ZELIE EMERSON IS DYING

American Girl Felled in England by Policeman During Suffrage Riot.

London, Nov. 12.—Miss Zelle Emerson, the American militant suffrage leader, formerly of Chicago, is believed to be dying from concussion of the brain, the result of a blow from a London policeman's club.

Miss Emerson led an assailing band of women against a battalion of police at the Old Bow church on November 5, who were trying to arrest Sylvia Pankhurst. The charge was successful. Miss Pankhurst was taken by force from her captors and spirited away to a place of safety. Reinforcements of the police dispersed the throng of rescuers only with the greatest difficulty. And when the ground was cleared Miss Emerson was found unconscious.

Names Dudley Field Malone. Washington, Nov. 12.—The nomination of Dudley Field Malone, to be collector of the port of New York, was sent to the senate by President Wilson. He will succeed John Purroy Mitchell, mayor-elect of New York city.

Haywood Conviction Set Aside. Trenton, N. J., Nov. 12.—The state supreme court set aside the conviction of William Haywood, industrial worker of World leader who, with two others, was found guilty of disorderly conduct during the silk strike.

Vatican Gardener Suicides. Rome, Nov. 12.—The first suicide ever known to have taken place within the Vatican became known here. A gardener became violently insane and leapt from a thirty-five-foot wall to his death.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—The state supreme court set aside the conviction of William Haywood, industrial worker of World leader who, with two others, was found guilty of disorderly conduct during the silk strike.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—The state supreme court set aside the conviction of William Haywood, industrial worker of World leader who, with two others, was found guilty of disorderly conduct during the silk strike.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—The state supreme court set aside the conviction of William Haywood, industrial worker of World leader who, with two others, was found guilty of disorderly conduct during the silk strike.

STILL ONE HOPE REMAINED

Frederick's Idea Showed That He Could Shine in Future on Diplomatic Service.

Mrs. Titus carefully locked the jam closet, and told her two sons, eight and ten years of age, that she was going shopping.

"All right, mom," came the chorus. The street door had hardly shut behind Mrs. Titus when the two youngsters made a concerted rush for the jam closet. It was locked. A hunt for keys produced half a dozen. Each one was tried patiently, but not one fitted. The lock held, the jam closet remained inaccessible.

"What a shame!" said Thomas, the younger.

"Well," said Frederick, the elder, "we can wait until mamma comes home and ask her for something for being good boys."—New York Evening Post.

ERUPTION ON CHILD'S BODY

R. F. D. No. 2, Jackson, Mo.—"Our daughter who is ten months old was suffering from an eruption all over the body. In the beginning they were small red spots and afterwards turned into bloody sores. We tried all sorts of ointments but they did not procure any relief for our child. She cried almost day and night and we scarcely could touch her, because she was covered with sores from head to foot.

"We had heard about the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and made a trial with them, and after using the remedies, that is to say, the Soap and the Ointment, only a few days passed and our child could sleep well and after one week she was totally well."

(Signed) August F. Bartels, Nov. 25, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

Daylight at All Hours. Dr. Herbert E. Ives of London has invented daylight, he says. Scientific men have worked for years trying to accomplish this task. Doctor Ives has been at work for at least a dozen, and he asserts he has finally produced a light which is in every way equal to sunshine. The scientist has designed a powerful incandescent lamp with a special mantle, which is so placed in a cabinet he has designed that its rays are immediately beneath a reflector. This is made of metal, and the light is forced downward through a series of delicately colored screens, so arranged that the average rays which are not found in the north light are eliminated, and the effect, it is said, is that of a perfect harmony of light similar in every way to the rays of the sun.

Maid Had Helped. Young Van Winkle waited nervously in the parlor for Julia to arrive. He had been sitting there, twiddling his thumbs, for half an hour. Finally a step was heard in the hall and rose to his feet expectantly.

But it was not Julia. It was her maid.

"Marie," said the impatient young man, "what keeps your mistress so long? Is she making up her mind whether she'll see me or not?"

"No, sir," answered the maid with a wise smirk. "It isn't her mind she's making up."

She Scored. He was trying to make up their quarrel and came home with a package held behind him.

"Look here, dearest," he said, "I've got something here for some one I think more of than anyone else in the world."

"A box of cigars, I presume," she said sweetly.

Rather. "I had a great surprise the other day."

"What was it?" "I got a square deal from that rounder."

WORKS ALL DAY. And Studies at Night on Grape-Nuts Food.

Some of the world's great men have worked during the day and studied evenings to fit themselves for greater things. But it requires a good constitution generally to do this.

A G. A. man was able to keep it up with ease after he had learned the sustaining power of Grape-Nuts, although he had failed in health before he changed his food supply. He says:

"Three years ago I had a severe attack of stomach trouble which left me unable to eat anything but bread and water."

The nervous strain at my office from 6 A. M. to 6 P. M. and improper foods caused my health to fall rapidly. Cereal and so-called "Foods" were tried without benefit until I saw Grape-Nuts mentioned in the paper.

In hopeless desperation I tried this food and at once gained strength, flesh and appetite. I am now able to work all day at the office and study at night, without the nervous exhaustion that was usual before I tried Grape-Nuts.

It leaves me strengthened, refreshed, satisfied; nerves quieted and tired up, body and brain waste restored. I would have been a living skeleton, or more likely a dead one by this time, if it had not been for Grape-Nuts."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Read the above letter! A new era appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

THE CHOSEN NEW YORK MAYOR

its Utterly Rout Forces of Tammany Hall.

RATS WIN MANY STATES

Walter is Elected Governor of New York by Large Majority.

Nov. 6.—John Purroy... elected mayor of New York and Tammany hall... crushing defeat it has... years.

Stuart Governor... Richmond, Va.,... state Democratic... Henry Carter... elected Tuesday...

Many Town... Springfield, Ill.,... aid of women's... first time figure...

Twelve towns... loons were capt... ten other place... "dry" the anti-...

The "wets" v... all of which al... Returns from... rious cities of... ing resolu...

In Cincinnati Frederick... (Rep.) was elected mayor... T. Hunt (Dem.), incumbent, by... 3,000 plurality. Cleveland re-elected...

William A. Prendergast was elected comptroller over Herman A. Metz by about 25,000, due undoubtedly to the attacks directed especially against his candidacy.

Charles M. Marks was chosen president of Manhattan over as Darlington (Tammany) by Tammany even lost its county New York county. It had lost of aldermen.

candidates will fill all the the important board of estlings except that of Queens, ough President Connolly, in Democrat, whom fusion did e, was elected. Nobody, how- icts Tammany to get any in his vote.

had New York City. ousted her Socialist R. Lunn, and elected "craft, Citizens' candi-ves gained their most in Syracuse. Louis lidae, defeated James ocrat, and Eugene J. an, in a race so close w hundred votes sep- candidates. John-ected a Progressive rality of 11 votes.

e municipal elections victory of the follow- for mayor: ph G. Stevens (Rep.), s P. Fuhrmann (Dem.), Smith (Dem.), Burns (Dem.), W. Wilbur

Hiram, R. Egerton Charles W. Br... er (Rep.) James N. C... ne (Rep.) C. Midlam (m.), Isaac R. B... n (Rep.) Harry N. Hott... n (Fus.) Harry N. Dem... can be no llandside of Massachusetts was elected Tuesday. Boston gave rality of 28, a record ated by a gube...

rd P. Barry, Democrat, was lieutenant gov... by about and the result... great plural... election of Augustus Goth... e second plac... enced by on the Dem...

a contest between Charles... Progressive, and congress... P. G. Gard...

which has developed nation-wide interest because it was the only really good fight between Progressives and the old-guard anywhere in the country went in favor of the followers of Roosevelt.

The joke of the campaign proves to have been Governor Foss, running as an Independent.

Calvin D. Paige of South Bridge, Republican, was chosen to succeed the late William H. Wilder, Republican, in the special election in the third congressional district.

New Jersey Elects Fielder. Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Fielder, Democratic candidate for governor, was elected Tuesday by over 25,000 plurality.

Apparently nothing was left undone by the leaders to hold in check, for all sort in the Republicans, w ing to rumors flying specially in the str wards. Stokes recei flopped Democratic centage going to E gressive, the third post in the field.

James F. Fielder ernor when Presid from the office to He was the declar dent Wilson for Democratic party an and other nota campaign in his

Blair Lee M... Baltimore, Nov ocrat, was electe senate Tuesday t Jackson, Republic Governor Goldsbor expired term of th ner, and Charles T was elected to the tatives from the the unexpected term sentative Koelng. The Democrats el appeals. Stuart Governor Richmond, Va., state Democratic Henry Carter St elected Tuesday opposition.

Many Town Springfield, Ill., aid of women's first time figure tions in Illinois won sweeping cities and villag

Twelve towns loons were capt ten other place "dry" the anti- "wets."

The "wets" v all of which al Returns from rious cities of Ohio s ing resolu...

In Cincinnati Frederick (Rep.) was elected mayor T. Hunt (Dem.), incumbent, by 3,000 plurality. Cleveland re-elected...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

WHO SIGNS THE PAPER MONEY

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

Considering that the truth alone can be the basis of true progress and civilization it is astonishing how many things that whining, hypocritical puritan ancestor accomplished in his day. In his original home in England he had not been going many years before he cut off the head of a king, sent another king packing about his business, and in other ways pursued a policy of "direct action" that should appeal enormously to W. D. Haywood. Crossing the Atlantic, he helped to lay the foundations of an empire. For a man who hated to call a spade a spade, it is remarkable how well he could use that familiar agricultural implement. He used it to dig up the ungrateful soil of a rock-bound, frost-bitten commonwealth. Later he shouldered his spade and, still speaking through his nose, but for the most part faithful to his conspiracy of silence, he dug up the more grateful soil of the Mississippi valley and the western prairies and the Pacific river valleys, with occasional deviations to the pickaxe when he struck the ore-bearing lands of Colorado and the Sierras. He did not lose the early habit of carrying his flintlock into the field. He used it in Kansas, and five years later he was carrying it over a thousand miles of battlefield. In his own hypocritical way he called it a fight for free institutions against slavery. When the war was over he went back to farming and railroad building, persistent in his church-going habits and the traditional conspiracy of silence.

We are forced to be con... the puritan an... the puritan an...

the 1 a. m. and a good many of which, the theatrical managers Broadway are aching to solve, but are not allowed to.

The cavaliers despised the puritan ancestor because he spoke through his nose. But that was a minor fault. The real sin is that he refused to speak at all. He is the original patentee of the conspiracy of silence to which all our ills are due, as contrasted with the happy nations of the continent where there is no conspiracy of silence on all these fascinating topics, and consequently these problems do not exist. The puritan exalted salvation at the expense of conversation, thus failing to perceive that the latter is the indispensable condition of the former. If he had not been so afraid of calling a spade a spade, we should now have a flourishing literature and drama and art, and we should have done away with the social evil, even as conversational people like the French and the Germans have done away with it.

MOUNTAINS VANISH OFF MAP

Brown and Hooker Peaks, on Old Canadian Profiles, Cannot Be Found.

Winnipeg.—That Mount Brown and Mount Hooker, traditional monarchs of the Canadian Rockies, which were supposed to guard Yellow Head Pass, and which were first mentioned 60 years ago by Douglass, a botanist, do not exist has just been proved by Alfred Mumm and Geoffrey Howard, English Alpinists, who have been investigating mountain regions in the neighborhood of Mount Robson and the pass.

In exploration work spread over several weeks these mountain climbers have discovered no trace of the mythical mountains. The mountains were reputed to be between 10,000 and 17,000 feet in height. While these mountains do not appear to exist, Messrs. Mumm and Howard, accompanied by Morris Linderbolen, the former Swiss explorer, explored peaks each in excess of 11,000 feet high in the neighborhood of the massive mountain peaks which mountain climbers have been taken by an old blaze on the tree in the heart of the he thinks may possi of an early pioneer tra the dispute between tra northern Fur company and Bay company trappers way through the moun British Columbia, follow of Wood river, and even in an amphitheater of known as the "Comm Owl." The men had su hardships and a consul held as to whether they or go forward.

had arrived at the w thought their journey over, and some decid most of these perish who went forward soon y path through Yellow re out of the mountains discovered by Messrs. Howard is thought to have by four of the ill-fated the date, October 20, the following initials: A. T. and H. S.

the turkey trot Clark, Daughter of declares Against Modern Dances.

Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter and Mrs. Clark, at the turkey trot.

the tango and other 'ultra-modern dances.

Miss Clark will not dance them and says so with characteristic simplicity. "The waltz, two-step and the pretty round dances of our grandmothers are quite enough for me," she said.

Victoria, B. C.—Steaming across the far reaches of the broad Pacific on board the steamship Marama is a lone passenger who up to the time of the big liner's departure had not the slightest intention of making the long passage to the Antipodes.

Just prior to the sailing of the Marama a fashionably attired young lady boarded the vessel, which she imagined was the Pacific coast steamer Umattilla, bound for San Francisco.

The unwilling passenger was Nellie Stone of Oakland, Cal., had been visiting at the home of Evans at Sonoma, near B. C.

The first news of Miss Stone's predicament was conveyed to Victoria by a wireless message from C. P. R. officials de Aged Man Does Foolish Thing. Patchogue, N. Y.—While waiting to catch boys whom he supposed to be responsible for putting cartridges on the trolley tracks here, John L. Burman, a motorman, saw a seventy-year-old man place a line of cartridges along the rails and wait for the car to pass over them. The aged man was warned to "cut out" his boyish pranks.

leged Highwayman Has Foot Ensnared in Smoke Regulator of Chimney.

New York.—After escaping three two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

He was caught in the chimney of a two-story building in Brooklyn by a policeman who had pursued him. The youth is George Cusack, seventeen years old. He and two other youths are accused of holding up and assaulting Dominick Berquist, a carpenter.

MAASTRICHT HILLS

Commonplace Elsewhere, They Are Mountains in Holland.

Character About the Dutch Uplands That Is Quite Their Own—It Is at Meerssen That Netherlands Take Hilly Proportions.

Berlin.—I suppose that a traveler opening his eyes suddenly upon the hills near Maastricht, in Dutch Limburg, after having been conducted thither blindfold from some other country, would not find them very remarkable. But let him approach them over many miles of flat landscape following the route of the Zuid-Willms, and the appearance of the hills is quite a revelation.

The low sky-line and the accustomed level that it is hungry for a hill. A spur of wooded heights and the castle of Petersberg seem to rise as if by magic over the water. Towed by slow horses, or more frequently pulled by powerful tugs, the familiar Dutch barges and schuits, reminiscent of ploders and the sea, pursue their way unperturbed by the unaccustomed heights. It is as if Holland had strayed into other lands.

Yet there is a character about the Dutch uplands that is quite their own. At Meerssen the familiar scenery of the Netherlands begins to rock and swell and adapt itself to the hole of mountaineer as it encounters the country of the hills. But it struggles to preserve its nationality, and succeeds

RURAL NEWS ITEMS

LAKE VILLA

Mrs. Chittenden and Mrs. McCulloch of Gurnee spent Wednesday here.

Frank Sherwood has gone to Chicago where he has accepted a position.

Jay Miller of Waukegan spent one day last week with his parents here.

Misses Lillian and Ruby Falch and Stella Kerr spent Saturday in Waukegan.

Mrs. Hanson and son were in last week. Lowrie had been to preach the funeral service for Mrs. Hanson.

On Friday of last week occurred the death of Mrs. Hanson, an old resident, who has spent the most of her life here. She came from Sweden several years ago. She is survived by two sons and two daughters and several grandchildren.

While on the way home from Waukegan last Friday in Geo. Jackson's auto, one of the rear wheels broke, overturning the car and throwing out the occupants, Mr. Jackson, J. J. McMahon and Mr. Tegmeyer. Mr. Jackson and Mr. McMahon both were quite badly bruised but no bones were broken and it is thought they will recover.

Not One of Those "Distinguished."
A Kansas man who was on his first visit to Washington recently went to the capitol, accompanied by a friend, to see congress in session. From the visitors' gallery the Kansan looked over the assembled statesmen seeking in vain for the member from his district. "Maybe he's down there, but I can't distinguish him," said the Kansan. "Of course not," replied his Washington friend. "He can't even distinguish himself."

HICKORY

Irene Savage spent Saturday in Antioch.

Miss Smyth visited over Sunday at Union Grove.

Miss Emma Peterson of Burlington, visited here last week.

Mrs. Earl Edwards and daughter is visiting at D. B. Webb's.

The Cemetery society will meet on Nov. 20, at the church. All are invited as this is our yearly meeting.

A home sary. Besides three bountiful rep.

presented with a fine Mr. Peterson with a ter which Mrs. Ames ing:

One afternoon sometime The wedding bells were And these two people As merry chimes were

The years have steadily Till thirty have been And still the time has Nor do our friends s

The years have helped them And they have done a And still keep pegging Facing their duties

And now we trust that Which we have carried Will help to lighten the And bring the father

And as we go our home The wish is in each of That many happy y

Before these friends Hickory Ch a

SUNDAY em- 1:45 p. m. Sunday de 2:30 p. m. Preach

The reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

We had 27 who remained for preaching services last Sunday. Over 30 at Sunday School. We are doing fine, let us keep on growing.

Members of the Ladies Aid and Cemetery societies spent a whole day last week cleaning the church and putting down the carpet.

Some of the folks interested in Hickory church are speaking about raising enough money to paper the church and dining room. It certainly needs it. We ought to keep the house of God in as good repair as our own home and the old paper is hanging down in shreds. The plan is to have the work done in the spring and to raise for it before it is too late. Think of it? do it if we can.

Several Sunday School young people were out of commission by the striking

This photograph shows the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

in which the cars of the Indianapolis Traction company were employees and their friends

MCOMBS IS MARRIED

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE HEAD WEDS IN LONDON

Many of British Nobility Present. His Marriage to Miss Dorot Williams.

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

The wedding followed so closely upon the announcement that many of the friends who had been invited were unable to attend. But if the ceremony that witnessed the ceremony was small in numbers, it was great in distinction.

Mr. McCombs said that the chief reason why the ceremony was performed in London was because both he and Miss Williams wished to avoid an ostentatious wedding in Washington. The few invitations sent out were not dispatched until two days

London, Nov. 10.—Miss Williams, the beautiful daughter of Col. John R. Williams, U. S. A., married to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee Friday, in the quaint Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and St. Edward, tucked away in Buckingham palace road, within a stone throw of the royal residence.

HUERTA WON'T QUIT

ELLIS DIPLOMATS NEW ELECTION MUST COME BEFORE SUCCESSOR IS NAMED.

London, Nov. 10.—Foreign diplomats were sent a formal note Sunday by General Huerta, after calling on the efforts he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

General Huerta reminds the diplomats prior to the elections he had made to the country and dwelling on his reasons for dissolving congress, making the direct statement of a newly elected congress will be called within a few days and upon the elections of presidential vice-president.

Timothy Kelly has recovered from a spell of sickness.

James Dawes and family are entertaining Chicago friends.

There will be a bazaar at the church for a deer hunt in Wisconsin.

There will be a dance at Russell on Friday evening. You are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henkle are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy.

Younger Murrie returned home on "Well," spending a few days in being gning Po

Once in the bosom of his family, for the first time in two years, Bellis collapsed completely.

While his wife and children cowered at the sounds of conflict that followed the dispersal of the mob by the Cossacks, the man himself sank wearily upon a bed, his strength utterly exhausted.

The specific charge against Bellis was that he had killed Andrew Yushinsky, a Christian boy, for the purpose of using his blood in a sacrificial ritual demanded by his religion.

The verdict, for which the whole world awaited anxiously, is considered an final and telling blow to the "ritual murder" myth, which for hundreds of years has been used as an excuse for persecuting and slaying Jews.

"This is a victory for Bellis but a greater verdict for the Jewish race in Russia," declared M. Grousenburg, leading counsel for the accused man.

Bellis was overcome with joy. The big, strong laborer, who has withstood two years of most hideous torture by the Russian police in their efforts to force him to confess to the "ritual murder," wept as he thanked the jurors and his lawyers.

The rejoicing among the Jews here over Bellis' victory was one of silence. They dared not express their joy.

Each of the above include FREE one Fruit Jar Dipper. COME AND GET YOURS WALSH, Gray's Lake

Each of the above include FREE one Fruit Jar Dipper. COME AND GET YOURS WALSH, Gray's Lake